

REQUEST FOR SUPPLY OF CASINO VERSION 2.12

Academic version

For the purposes of this agreement the term 'the authors' in the following means 'R.J. Needs, M.D. Towler, N.D. Drummond, and P. López Ríos', TCM Group, Cavendish Laboratory, J.J. Thomson Ave., Cambridge CB3 0HE, UK.

I request a copy of the quantum Monte Carlo computer code, CASINO, version 2.12 or later, hereafter referred to as CASINO. Upon receipt of the code I will adhere to the following conditions.

1. I understand that copyright and intellectual property rights are retained by the authors.
2. I will not supply a copy of CASINO to anyone. I will refer requests for copies of CASINO to the authors. I have the right to use CASINO on more than one computer system at my registered address given below.
3. I will not incorporate any part of CASINO into any other program system without prior written permission of the authors.
4. I will not use CASINO for any profit-making purposes without signing the separate commercial license.
5. I will not modify the source code of CASINO without prior written permission of the authors.
6. In any publication quoting results from CASINO I will reference it as follows:
R.J. Needs, M.D. Towler, N.D. Drummond and P. López Ríos, J. Phys.: Condens. Matter 22, 023201 (2010).
7. I understand that CASINO is not guaranteed to be bug free and that it is supplied 'as is', with no additional responsibility or liability. I will report any difficulties encountered in using CASINO to the authors.
